Michelle McKinney Hammond, an accomplished author of more than 30 books. Michelle has been a television co-host of TLN’s Emmy Award-winning “Aspiring Women,” a talk show that ran for nine years in over 100 markets to the U.S. and abroad. Selling more than one million copies, her writings pinpoint the root causes of relational issues while sharing life changing insights on “living, loving and overcoming” with countless faithful readers. She is a rare diamond.

A combination of grace, truth, transparency, and humor place Michelle in numerous media outlets to include Essence Magazine, The Chicago Tribune, NBC’s “The Other Half,” “Politically Incorrect” with Bill Maher, BET’s “Oh Drama”, E’s “Soaptalk” and “The 700 Club”. The New York Times call Michelle “the most visible face of the evangelical advice industry for men and women.”

Her influence has grown internationally along with her list of books including best selling titles, The DIVA Principle and the bestselling titles Sassy, Single, & Satisfied, Secrets of an Irresistible Woman, and 101 Ways to Get and Keep His Attention. The hard-hitting approach and refreshing femininity she uses even reaches men as she says, “I am on a mission of reconciliation between the sexes. After I speak, a lot of men come up to me and thank me.”

Today, Michelle is busy developing her own television talk show, recording a worship music project, continuing to write books and travel frequently to speak and sing to audiences worldwide. To those who draw comparisons of her to Oprah she laughs and says, “There’s only one Oprah. But then again, there’s only one Michelle.” While remaining single, Michelle keeps it all in perspective. “I’m an all or nothing person and know the type of wife I’d like to be. I’m enjoying life. When I do meet the right person, I will be willing to make the necessary sacrifices to cultivate a healthy marriage,” she says. For now, she continues to manage her busy schedule and live in Chicago with her two shih tzu puppies, Milan and Matisse.

For Michelle, life comes down to helping other people. For more information on Michelle or her work, visit her at www.michellehammond.com .
