#1 Conference for Christian Writers!

Karen Hunter, Pulitzer Prize-winning journalist, President and CEO of Karen Hunter Publishing. Dynamic radio talk-show host, and co-author of numerous New York Times bestsellers, including Ladies First with Queen Latifah, I Make My Own Rules with LL Cool J, On the Down Low with JL King, and Wendy's Got the Heat with Wendy Williams.

Karen is also a full-time professor and Distinguished Lecturer in the Film & Media Department at Hunter College in New York. A former sports and news reporter with the New York Daily News for 12 years, Karen served on the editorial board of The News for four years, where she was a member of the 1999 Pulitzer Prize- and Polk Award-winning teams. She was also the paper's first African-American female news columnist.

As a book writer, she has also collaborated with Sandy (Pepa) Denton, Mason Betha (the rapper Mase), Donda West (Kanye's mother), and Rev. Al Sharpton on his critically acclaimed political manifesto Al on America.

As a publisher, Karen has produced New York Times bestselling Mama Dearest with the late E. Lynn Harris, as well provocative titles: Why Black Men Love White Women, Don't Bring Home a White Boy, Why Men Fear Marriage and Stop Being Niggardly. In addition, she has published Romare Bearden-inspired epic griotsong Children of Children Keep Coming and Patti Labelle's latest cookbook, Recipes For The Good Life. Karen Hunter Publishing is slated to produce pop diva's Janet Jackson's first book in 2011.

Karen, a New Jersey native and Drew University graduate, has recently signed with MSNBC as a contributor. For more information about Karen and her work visit karenhunterpublishing.com.
